

Mike Anderson

Senior Vice President Charitable Giving • Georgia Power

An Atlanta native, Mike Anderson was named Senior Vice President of Charitable Giving in early 2011. In this role, he manages the company's corporate giving, and serves as President and CEO of the Georgia Power Foundation, Inc. and Vice President of Southern Company Foundation

Prior to this position, Mike served as Vice President of Corporate Services. In this role, he was responsible for Corporate Safety, Labor Relations, Fleet Management, Workforce Development, Workforce Training, and Charitable Giving. Additionally, he served as President and CEO of Georgia Power Childcare, LLC.

Mike received a bachelor's degree in Industrial Engineering from the Georgia Institute of Technology, where he was also inducted into the Academy of Distinguished Engineering Alumni. Mike has an MBA from Emory University and is an alumnus of The Regional Leadership Institute, Leadership Georgia, and Leadership Atlanta.

He began his career with Georgia Power in 1979 and has held numerous leadership positions in Capital Budgeting, System Planning, Customer Operations, Information Technology, Marketing and External Affairs.

In the community, Mike serves on numerous boards, including Georgia Tech Industrial & Systems Engineering Advisory Committee, Zoo Atlanta, Emory University Board of Visitors, and Georgia Tech Alexander-Tharpe Inc.