

Ronnie R. Labrato

Executive Vice President, CFO and Treasurer • Georgia Power

Ronnie R. Labrato, as Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, is responsible for Georgia Power's accounting and finance functions. Georgia Power is the largest subsidiary of Southern Company, with over 17,000 megawatts of electric generating capacity.

Ronnie has 30 years of experience with Southern Company and its affiliates.

He most recently held the position of vice president of Internal Auditing for Southern Company. He previously held the position of CFO at Gulf Power. He was comptroller there before his appointment to CFO. He also has held a variety of management positions in the accounting, finance and regulatory organizations of Gulf Power.

Prior to joining Southern Company, Labrato worked for the Florida Public Service Commission and Deloitte, Haskins and Sells in Dallas.

Labrato received a degree in accounting from the University of West Florida in 1974. He is a Certified Public Accountant.

Labrato is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Florida Institute of Certified Public Accountants. He also serves on the boards of the Fernbank Museum of Natural History, United Way of Metropolitan Atlanta and Georgia Council on Economic Education, as well as the University of West Florida Business Advisory Group.