

Thomas Wicker

Region Vice President, Central (Macon) • Georgia Power

Born in Savannah, Georgia, Thomas graduated from Georgia Southern College with a degree in Business Management. He later earned his master's in Business Administration from Valdosta State College. He is a graduate of Wharton School of Business' Executive Accounting & Finance Program and Harvard University School of Business' Advanced Management Program.

Thomas began his career with Georgia Power in 1981, and has held several positions of increasing responsibility including District Customer Service Manager, Assistant to the Vice President, Business Manager, District Manager,

Economic Development Manager, Legislative Affairs Manager, Assistant to the Region Distribution Manager and Assistant to the President and CEO.

Thomas serves on numerous boards and committees within the community, including NewTown Macon, Greater Macon Chamber of Commerce, Macon Economic Development Commission,

Macon Rotary Club, Tubman African-American Museum, Cherry Blossom Festival, Museum of Aviation Foundation, Medical Center of Central Georgia Foundation, Ocmulgee Heritage Trail, and Mercer University National Engineering Advisory Board.