

Meredith Lackey

Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary • Georgia Power

Meredith Lackey serves as senior vice president, general counsel and corporate secretary for Georgia Power. She also serves as the company's chief compliance officer. Named to the position in October 2016, she oversees the company's corporate compliance, risk management, security and legal services functions. She provides legal counsel to Georgia Power's leadership team and serves on the company's management council.

Prior to her current position, Meredith served as vice president and general counsel at Colonial Pipeline Company since 2012, as well as chief compliance officer and corporate secretary. In that role, she led the company's legal, compliance, internal audit, government and regulatory affairs, and information technology teams.

Prior to joining Colonial in 2008, she served as director of human resources for a major U.S. division of an Atlanta-based large international mining company. Meredith began her career as a general commercial litigator at two leading law firms – Jones Day and Baker Botts.

Meredith holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from Louisiana State University and a law degree from the University of Mississippi.
